Newry will remain a part of In a heavy turnout Tuesday, town voters rejected a proposed plan for Newry to pull out of the school district.

The plan received a narrow majority, 92 of the 180 votes cast, but it fell far short of receiving the two-thirds majority required by state law for a town to secede from a school district.

The motion, Dreher explained, causes the molecular structure to switch rapidly back and forth between two mirror-image shapes.

The project proved to be an intellectual challenge, but was eventually abandoned when funding sources dried up.

Berlin. N.H. man charged in Gilead shooting incident

A Berlin, N.H. man was arrested Tuesday and charged with aggravated assault with a firearm in connection with a Northwest Bethel Road shooting incident that occurred Monday.

Robert A. Chapman, 34, turned himself in to police Tuesday morning in Gilead after allegedly shooting Tony L. Bennet, 26, of Bethel in the left calf, according to Capt. Jim Miclon of the Oxford County Sheriff's Department. Miclon said the shooting followed a heated arguement between Bennett and Chapman. After the incident Bennett drove himself to the Bethel Emergency Rescue Barn where two attendents met him and transported him to Stephen's Memorial Hospital. Miclon said Bennett was addmitted to the hospital Monday and released Tuesday morning. According to Miclon, police found a .357 magnum caliber revolver on the Northwest Bethel Road near the Maine/New Hampshire border. He said police suspect the revolver may be the one used in the shooting.

Chapman turned himself in to Miclon Tuesday morning and was released on bail Tuesday afternoon. An arraignment in Rumford District Court has been scheduled for May 17; however, according to Miclon, the case may be presented to the Oxford County Superior Court on May 6 or 7 in front of a Grand Jury.

throughout the U.S. Fake has been the associate program director responsible for Outward Bound's Greenville operation. "I will now be responsible for all the programs that run out of the Newry base and the seasonal base in Greenville.

Fake explained that Outward Bound runs two different type programs in Maine—sea programs from its base in Rockland, and land programs in Newry and Greenville. Outward Bound also has bases in Florida, Baltimore and Boston.

Fake said he will be consolidating Outward Bound's land programs and administrating them centrally from the Newry base. He said his personal goal in his new position is to "maintain and establish further links with the local community-with Newry and Bethel-and do the same for the Greenville base."

Outward Bound currently does service projects in these communities and Fake said he hopes to continue such projects.

HIS WEEK AT THE

Opinions

Pull out or stay in? Either way, show up and vote.

The Citizen is holding a small space on its front page this week in the hope that we will be able to report the results of the Newry withdrawal vote before going to press, but the rest of the paper, including this editorial, must be written before the results of the vote are known.

But whatever the voters of Newry decide, one thing is clear—SAD #44 residents should plan to turn out for Thursday night's district budget meeting.

If Newry votes to go its own way, the budget meeting still will be convened—as law requires—but a motion will be made to recess it almost immediately, in order to give the school board time to reassess the total budget package in view of the severe impact Newry's withdrawal will have on the remaining towns in the district.

This would be the prudent and responsible course. But there is no guarantee the motion would carry. If the majority of voters present wish, they could defeat the motion to recess and then go on to pass the original budget. Or-as we learned last year-an even larger budget.

This is, perhaps, an unlikely scenario, but if only a few people turn out for the meeting, it is by no means out of the question. To forestall such an eventuality, and to ensure that the district has adequate time to react to the impact of a Newry withdrawal, it is essential that a representative number of voters turn out for the meeting. This means not just school district employees and their families, but all the rest of us as well.

And this is just as true if Newry votes to stay in the district. The Citizen supports the budget proposed by the school directors.

The tax increases hurt, but the district also made some no-doubt painful cuts. The budget as it stands represents as reasonable a compromise as can be achieved in these unfortunate times.

But once again, if only the usual crew shows up for the budget meeting, there is nothing to prevent them from raising the budget by whatever figure strikes their fancy.

To prevent this, the rest of us need to be there—if only to serve as a reality check.

Last year at this time a briefly popular television series seemed more important than the budget, and in our absence the local tax ante was upped by an additional $80,000 (later voted down). But, to paraphrase Edmund Wilson, "Who cares who killed Laura Palmer?" The meeting is more important. See you there? -MRD

Letters to the editor

ROLLICKING RECYCLING

To the Editor:

Effective Saturday, April 27, Bethel's recycling program will undergo new drastic changes. We will no longer be using the bin at the front of the ambulance garage but the new containers at the far end of the garage. There will be some new rules that will require your utmost cooperation.

There will be seven bins—one for HDPE (#2) plastic, one for office paper, one for computer paper, one for newspapers, one for cardboard, one for clear glass, and one for brown/green glass. The bin marked for office paper will be combined with computer paper, making the office paper bin available for tin and Do not put Coca-Cola, Pepsi Cola, Schweps, etc. and clear wine or whiskey containers in with HDPE (#2) plastic. The county is not able to recycle these—at least as yet.

The newspaper bin is to receive only newsprint. Newsprint must be put in the bin loose—no grocery bags, no plastic bags, it must not be tied in bundles and not in cartons. There must be no magazines. The cardboard bin is for corrugated cardboard and kraft grocery bags only. Please, no cereal boxes or any types of coated containers.

Hopefully, starting this coming Saturday we will get off to a rollicking start with Oxford County recycling. Richard Hosterman Bethel Solid Waste and

FLOOD MAPS ALL WET

(The following letter was sent by Rudolf A Honkala of Bethel to Kevin Merli of the Federal Emergency Management Agency.)

Dear Mr. Merli: I am writing to you in regards to the flood insurance rate map published by your agency for this area. On April 30, the townspeople of Bethel will be asked to give this map their approval. The map would then become a working tool of the National Flood Insurance Program as of May 2. I urge the citizens of Bethel to reject this map as incorrect and suggest that FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) immediately look to better data sources and/or better cartographers for a more accurate man.

This flood insurance rate map problem is not unique to this area. In 1988, just before my wife and I began the process of moving back to New England, we received a letter from our bank in Kilmarnock, Va., telling us that in light of the new flood insurance map for that area, we would be required to take out flood insurance. Our property was on the shore of a tidewater "creek" but had never been flooded in the memory of the oldest residents. We were finally excused, the bank feeling that even if our buildings were swept away the remaining land would be adequate collateral. I wonder how many property owners in tidewater Virginia were required to take out flood insurance that they did not need?

So, we moved back to our home territory just in time to be asked to approve a map that is in error, at least for our neighborhood. Part of our property is in the shaded zone. This acreage is appreciably higher than the Androscoggin's north shore, which would provide an outlet for thousands of acre feet of water before there was serious threat to this side. A shaded area even crosses the road east of our house. To suggest that flooding would reach these areas is gross miscalculation.

Don't ask us to approve a map that may well result in costs to landowners for insurance that they do not need. Rudolf A. Honkala

WHAT IS THIS—AN ESCORT SERVICE IN BETHEL?—Well, not really, but one of these fine looking boys could escort you to your table if you make plans to attend the annual Boy Scout dinner, "A Night out with the Boys," to be held this Saturday, April 27, at 6 p.m. in the Telstar Cafeteria. This is an annual fund raiser for the scouts and always promises to be a great value for the dollar. Not only do you get a great ham dinner with all the fixings, you also are entertained with a variety of fun-filled performances from music to magic. This year's door prizes are better than ever and number more than a dozen. Seating is limited and all tickets will be sold in advance. The cost is $8 per single and $15 per couple. For tickets call any of the following numbers: 824-2698, 836-3602 or 824-2777. Support of the Boy Scouts is greatly appreciated and is always tax deductible. This year the money is being used to defray the cost of Summer Camp for all of the Scouts in Bethel Troop 565.

ed, had yet to be solved. But soon afterward, Dreher hit by chance upon a solution. One day, while he was doing some freelance graphics work for The Citizen, Dreher was puttering about the print shop and he happened to picked up a roll of doublesided tape—and inspiration hit. He quickly realized that a combination of double-sided tape and pre-cut construction paper might be his long-sought solution. With the idea beginning to look commercially feasible, the New York distributor made an offer to buy Dreher out.

Dreher accepted the offer, which included a share of any future royalties, but once again financing failed to keep pace with inspiration, and the deal fell through.

Dreher then turned to Carl Hansen, his partner in a number of carpentry and cabinet building projects. Hansen had the financial skills needed to raise the capital for the project, and to handle business negotiations and marketing. And Hansen and Dreher are both hands-on industrial designers with the skills necessary to gear the project up for mass production.

To date they have produced about 1,000 of the Octabugs (still by hand) and distribited them, primarily to wholesalers and catalog retailers. The response, Hansen said, has been encouraging. A number of potential clients-including Disney Worldhave placed small orders so that they can test the Octabug out further. If all goes well, the Bug Group hopes to be producing 100,000 units a year by 1994, Hansen said. The company also plans to explore potential export markets in Japan and Europe.

Also in the works, Dreher said, are designs for at least six more educational toys based on the jitterbugging

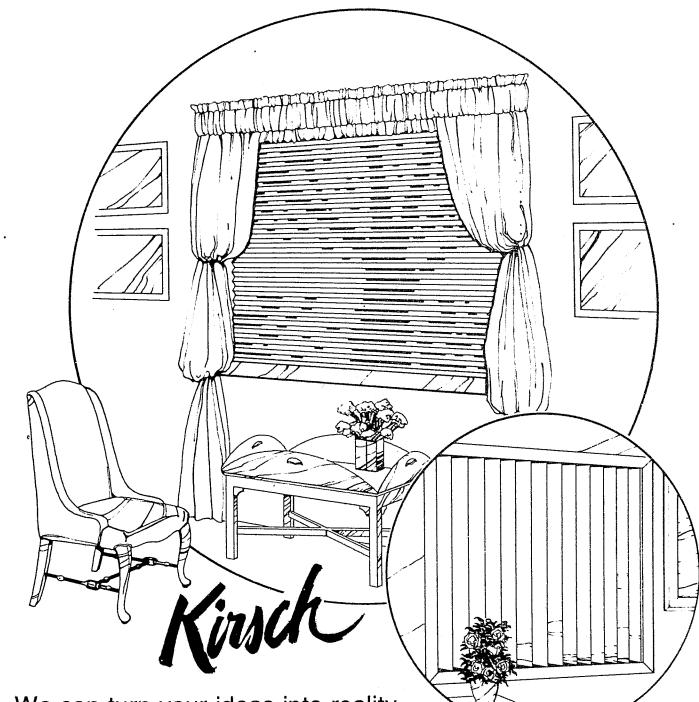

The Octabug comes in kit form and takes about an hour to assemble. It can currently be purchased in Bethel at Mountain Mann and Maine Line Products.

the successful outcome of local annual Senior Citizen Thanksgiving Dinners and Blood Drives. Kristen enjoys jazz and ballet, has been a dancer for fourteen years and performed for senior citizens. She loves to travel and experience different ways of living. She's travelled to Spain and taken advantage of ski camp trips to Lake Placid, Labrador City and West Yellowstone.

Kristen not only does a lot but whatever she does, she does well. She has earned eight varsity letters and been named a member of the Maine State Ski Team. She was chosen to participate in the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Conference and Maine Scholars Day programs. She's received numerous awards including Outstanding American Scholar, University of Maine Award of Academic Achievement, Outstanding French Student, Teacher's Award in American Literature and Earth Science, Outstanding Performance Award in Lab Physics and the Maine Secondary School Principals Association Award for Outstanding Achievement and Citizenship Kristen will attend Bowdoin College in the fall of 1991, where she intends to earn a bachelor's degree in economics and mathematics. Fourth in the clas is Kristen

Michelle Delano, daughter of Wayne and Sandra Delano of East Andover. Kris is another exceptional member of the Class of '91. Not only is she a superior student, but she is also a truly "involved in the school" type of person. She's played field hockey for four years. The team has been Western Maine Champs for the last two years and Kris was their captain this year. She's also played softball for four years and is captain this year. Kris has been secretary of her class all four years and she's secretary for the National Honor Society. Kris is a peer tutor, Pep. Club and Self Group member, boys basketball manager and organizer for the NTL Gould/Telstar Leadership Conference. She was cited for one of this year's Best Career Week Projects for her work at Sea World in Florida. Around School activities, Kris has blood drive organizer, Senior Citizen Thanksgiving Dinner volunteer, NTL Ranger Program organizer and member of a scholarship fundraising committee for Andover Seniors. Her academic and extracurricular honors and awards are extensive and, to name a few, include Field Hockey All-Star Team, Field Hockey All-State Team, Field Hockey Coach's Award, United States Marine Corps Distinguished Athlete Award, All American French Scholar and University of Maine Merit Award. Kris was guest speaker for the Bethel Rotary Club and attended the University of Maine Aspirations Project Students

Kristen's immediate future plans after graduation are to attend the University of Southern Maine with an undeclared major. Her long range goals include a career in biological Maintaining the fifth highest rank in the class is Althea Marie Stevens, daughter of Floyd and Alicia Stevens of South Woodstock. Althea is a pleasant, conscientious and enthusiastic student at Telstar. She participated in the Boston/Telstar Exchange and Outward Bound, has been manager for the softball team, and is treasurer for the Future Business Leaders of American

A high achiever, Althea has been recognized for her scholastics by the University of Maine and at the F.B.L.A. State Leadership Conference, where she took fourth place in Accounting. Althea enjoys reading in her spare time and working at a part-time job after school at Ledgeview Nursing Home. Althea will major in Marine Biology at the University of Maine at Machias and has been admitted to enter this program in September of 1991. Gena Lynn Morgan has achieved sixth place standing in her class. She is the daughter of Kelly Vascik of East Bethel and Dana Morgan of West Paris. Gena has worked hard, been active in student affairs and an asset to our programs. Last summer, she excelled in Hebron Academy's Math-Science Scholars program and participated in Maine Scholars Day at the University of Maine. She enjoyed her Outward Bound experience and working on the National Honor Society's Thanksgiving Dinner for Senior Citizens, Blood Drives and Big Brothers/Big Sisters Bowl-A-Thon benefit. Gena has received numerous academic achievement awards from classroom teachers in Math, English, Science and Spanish. Outside of school, Gena enjoys reading, swimming and spending time with family and friends. Gena will attend the University of Maine at Orono with an undeclared major next fall. Seventh place standing has been attained by Meredith J. Howe, daughter of C. Stephen and Joyce Howe of Bryant Pond. Meri is a personable, capable young lady. She is mature, quiet, thoughtful and talented. She shares generously of her abilities in music and has made a real contribution to Telstar in this regard. She's an accomplished flutist and has performed for many groups throughout Maine and New England. At Telstar she is President of the Band and Marching Band and Secretary for Tri-M. She's been a member of the drama club, basketball and cross-crountry teams. A three year member of track and field she is also a member of the National Honor Society, Freshmen Awareness Committee and a Guidance Information System aide. She has won a number of honors and awards throughout her high school career. Meri's perhaps proudest accomplishment came this year when she was elected to tour Europe this summer with the Sounds of America All America Honors Band and Chorus. An exceptional student, Meri plans to pursue studies in music or engineering at the college of her choice next fall.

In eighth place standing is Katherine Louise Stevens. She is the daugher of Bethel residents Alvin and Alice Stevens. Katie is conscientious and dependable, an industrious student who knows what she wants and is willing to work hard to achieve her goals. She has been active in the music program at Telstar, a member of the Marching Band and Concert Band and a solid supporter of the Halloween Howl and Holly Fair. Katie enjoys cooking and crafts and plans to enroll in the Culinary Arts program at New Hampshire Techinical College, Berlin. Placing ninth in academic standing is Jessica Marie Fogg, daughter of Nancy L. Fogg of Greenwood. Jessica is a serious student and has maintained an exceptional academic record since transferring to Telstar her junior year from Bonney Eagle. During her high school years, she has participated in varsity track, weightlifting and Latin Club. She's served as a boys wrestling student trainer; as a reporter, layout the Prom and Graduation staff, typist and typeset editor for the school newspaper; as a set design manager for the drama club, and as a caterer for state drama finals. She's a member of the National Honor Society and has worked on blood drives and Senior Citizen Thanksgiving Dinners. Also, Jessica has been a volunteer with student book sales, yearbook fundraisers and as a student representative of the District Guidance Advisory Council.

Jessica won first place in the district writing contest in SAD #6, was selected as an alternate to attend Girls State, and has been named to Who's Who Among American High School Students for three consecutive years. Jessica enjoys skiing, dancing, reading, writting, computer programming, dramatic arts, music appreciation, teaching, creative design and cooking and working in her free time. She has been accepted in the culinary arts program at Central Maine Technical College, Auburn.

Rounding out this superb group of individuals is Rebecca Dee Hanscom daughter of David and Christine Hanscom of West Bethel. Becky is an outstanding young lady, vivacious, aware and interested in things going on around her. She is thoughtful and considerate of people and issues and not afraid to become involved in matters of importance.

Becky's extracurricular involvement includes membership in Self Group, the Freshman Awareness Committee, NTL Gould/Telstar Leadership Conference, Telstar's interactive theater Reaching Out For Teen Awareness group, National Honor Society, Math League, Peer Tutoring and Yearbook Staff.

Becky has also served the community as a contributing member of the Mahoosuc Arts Programming Committee and the Bethel Rotary Club Spanish-American Youth Exchange. She has had eight years of dancing lessons and recitals with the Childrens Dance Theater of Bethel and participated in a community production of "Carousel" at Gould Academy.

Becky has enjoyed travelling to Montreal, Canada; Oberlin, Ohio and two trips to Spain. She also enjoys horseback riding, skating, swimming, canoeing and attending musical theater productions.

Becky was accepted early decision at the University of Maine at Farmington as an Elementary Education major with an emphasis in special education. Becky has been accepted in the University's Honors Program.

Locke Mills By LORRAINE MILLS

There will be an Old Time Dance at 8 p.m. on April 27 at the Town Hall. The Greenwood Fire Department meets at 7 p.m. the first Wednesday in May at the fire station.

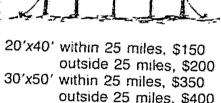

Lorraine Mills accompanied Alta Ludlum to Gorham Christian Assembly in Gorham, Maine to hear Lillian Sparks address a convention of Women's Ministries members of the North Central Section, Northern New England District, Assemblies of God. Lillian and her husband are both ministers in the A/G church and have four children. Their eldest son was born with an extremely rare skin disease in which they skin tears away in patches and leaves large areas of bloody pulp. Her son Brian, who was not expected to live, has just had his 17th birthday and although his fingers have fused together he has recently acquired his license to drive his specially equipped car. Lillian has written two books about the struggle to raise this "tough cookie" as one doctor nicknamed him. Since not much is known about how to treat this rare disease much of what they have gone through has been by trial and error. Brian and sisters LeeAnn, Janelle and brother Brent were also present and sang several selections. A luncheon was served by the host church to those attending from the 15 churches registered. In the afternoon the ladies attended one of the four workshops offered: "How to Deal with Life's Disappointments", Lillian Sparks; "How to Keep Your Kids on Your Team," Stephen Sparks, "Crafts", Betty Graffam, and "Turning Point", Robin Nason. Turning Point is an abuse recovery program for abused spouses and adult children of abuse although it deals mainly with women, since women make up the majority in abuse cases. Due to the high rate of abuse in the area our church serves, the majority of the women took this workshop hoping to he able to offer this program in the not too distant future and if you've thought it seldom happens here, guess again folks. It's just very well hidden due to fear, shame and a very wrong but deeply ingrained notion that somehow these people deserve what they are getting. Many people also do not have a very well defined idea of what abuse consists of and feel this is an area where they have a "right" to do as they please. It sometimes is difficult to educate people that no one has the right to abuse another person, adult, child or animal. Violent behavior breeds violent behavior and the cycle has to be broken. Programs such as this are dedicated to breaking this cycle in this generation.

Dora Ford Dingley celebrated her 82nd birthday Wednesday, Apr. 17 at her home at the Mountain View Apartments in West Paris. Some of the residents and friends of the apartment house surprised her with a cake and cards and gifts. On Thursday Vera Cross, Helen Chase, Charlotte Cole took her a pie, chicken pie, and jelled salad and had dinner with her in honor of her birthday.

Sandy Nash of Dixfield visited Lorraine Mills Tuesday and on Wednesday Gerry Shirmamura took her to Ledgeview to see Gerry's mother, Thelma. Then on Thursday Gerry took her to the Grief and Loss session and then treated her to lunch at the Chinese Restaurant in Mexico. They also visited Linda Hughes and family in Rumford. Linda has been very ill with pneumonia and her recovery has been very slow.

Dear Paul: We won't be able to join you at the rude bridge as planned. Our commitments here preclude our traveling to Concord to participate in the call to arms, despite our inclination to the contrary. You and the stout fellows of Watertown and Cambridge and Lexington and the surrounding villages will have to muddle through without us. Mud season is upon us; the wagon wheels are in muck to the hubs, and the horses are too tired to make the trip. Otherwise we'd be only too anxious to help you stave off the pesky

Redcoats. As we move ever so slowly into spring, we see signs of survival in every corner of our mountain village. The varieties of birds at the feeders and on the wires has increased dramatically. Hawks perch in perusal of the fields once more; robins gather in great numbers on lawns along the Flat Road. Folks are busy springcleaning the bluebird house in anticipation of the arrival of that special breed. Alfred Merrill reports that they (the bluebirds) have been inspecting his row of houses in anticipation of nesting...fussy little buggers...The goldfinches are a wonderful yellow again, and the morning stillness is broken (now even earlier than we plan to arise) by the chattering of the entire population of cow-birds, redwinged blackbirds, blue-jays, and grackles. There is a sense of pride in the spring cleaning' at the West Bethel Union Church. Members met last week for the Annual Meeting to approve their new budget, and to name their leaders for the coming year. The new shepherd of the flock, John Williams accepted the praise of former Pastor Norman Rust, and thanked his parishoners for their warm welcome and their avid support. John's wife, Wendy was not able to be present as she was back at the family farm in Otisfield, tending her own flock (of sheep, that is). Many new lambs have been recently 'birthed' and Wendy has assumed the role of

In spite of the harbingers of spring, there is still an occasional nip in the air; smoke still twists from chimneys; warm coats still hang at the ready. Rupert Grover and his grandson, David spent the recent days cutting and splitting many many cords of wood for next season's warmth. Now that's 'semper paratus' personified! Nancy Weber was not prepared for the twist that fate took recently at her home in Kingston, Massachusetts. Fire of unknown origin lapped up a considerable portion of the house while she was away. As a result she is 'away' for an extended vacation in West Bethel. Dick and Jane Hosterman (Jane and Nancy are sisters) are doing their best to make Nancy feel at home, and to help her acclimate to her new surroundings as she awaits the restoration of her own place. Speaking of own places...The Flat Road Vautours just returned from a visit with their Massachusetts sons who are about to open their 'own place'... a pizza delivery operation that will originate from Newton (Mass.) Once the licensing board granted the victuallers license, the hoisted the 'bubbly' with them in the shell of a former bike shop that will soon be transformed into their base of forgive. operations. As 'Pizzaman' takes shape, they hope to give the competition a run for the money, and maybe even set the 'domino effect' into action. ..

So, friend patriot, as you rush through the streets shouting your warning, we'll be thinking of you. We hope that your 'trip' will be a success, oh wearer of the tricorn. If we get free of the mire, maybe we can get there in time to help with the fray. We'll look for teachers and helpers at a later date for the signal in the belfry...Now, will be announced. let's see...was it one or two, if by land...Why can't I keep that straight? Whatever the day brings...Dominus Vobiscum...

Newry By JIM ANDERSON

Welcome home goes out to Louise and Norman Tetley. They have come back from Florida and will be with us for a while. Also up here for a shorter time is the famous Wee Willy. Hope he gets his phone in while he is up here. April 29 at 7 p.m., there will be the annual meeting of the Newry Community Church at the church. April 23 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. is the dreaded vote on whether Newry pulls out of SAD #44. To people who feel on either side of the issue, remember to go out and vote. If you don't, things may turn out the way you didn't want it to happen. Between the number of people that will be affected by this move or no move, and the tax base the district charges Newry; is a valuable asset to not only the town, but to the rest of the country and the world as well. The kids! Voters of Newry, remember them! Bowling news: The ranks of the lady bowlers has risen with the homing of Louise Tetley. Missing from the bowling gang this week (4/17) was Betsy Clark who was home with the sniffles and Eleanor Davis. For the second week, Karlene Bachelder won the whole shooting match. Karlene, watchout Louise isn't too far behind you.

She was the fourth place behind you! I was saddened by the news article by Wendy Hanscom on the death of Louise Dickinson Rich in last weeks paper. Through her "We Took to the Woods," my family first took to Rangeley Lake manor and eventually to where I am living today. Mrs.

Fire department news: next meeting of the fire department will be at the Sunday River Station on May 6 at 7 p.m. Still have plenty of room for more members and training is available! And membership is not limited to men. Sunday the 14th was a busy day for some fire departments in Oxford County. We had a "controlled burn" at the Harrington farm. It was a good day to burn a field and we needed something to get the stiffness out of a quiet winter with little to no fires. As close as I can figure, we have had 48 calls since January of 1988. Eleven have been brush or forest fires, nine have been false alarms, seven chimney fires, six house or camp calls for fires or some trouble, seventeen accidents, and four calls for aid (three to Bethel and one to Gilead). The first and third quarters have been the busiest quarters during the last three years. July to September of 1990 was our busiest with nine calls, with no calls during the final quarter of that year. As to which side of town has had the most calls, I really do not want to get into that "can of worms!" Let's just say both sides of Newry had their fair share of attention without any fire department member getting serious-

Thursday, April 11, Mary Smith, Dora Dingley and I went to the Oxford County Senior Citizens meeting at South Paris Fire Station for a delicious baked ham dinner with mashed potatos, veggies, salads, rolls homemade pies, and cookies. A very good crowd. Then we visited Gertrude Birney at Market Square Nursing Home. She is feeling much better. Then I went to Mr. and Mrs. Eino

Kuvaja's for a birthday supper for Susan Kimball. A very good supper as usual, three birthday cakes.

The West Paris senior citizens will meet on Wednesday, May 8 at the Mission Congregational Church for a potluck dinner and the children from the Agnes Gray Elementary School will entertain us. Please bring your utencils and something for the table at the May 11 West Paris Grange Hall Flea Market and food sale. The flea market is starting at 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Mrs. Roberta Isley, Ian and Tom and Madge Vatcher have been to Nova Scotia for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oja and Evelyn Chamberlain went to visit Gail Oia in Massachusetts, and then went to Pennsylvania, and toured a lot of interesting places. Monday Apirl 15, I went to Dixfield and visited Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Pinkham and Doris and I visited Joanne Abbott and her new baby Heather. We ate at Ma's Restaurant and went to several stores. That evening I got Mary Smith and we went to Franklin Grange Hall to Citizen Award Night. Mr. and Mrs. Howard McKillop were the honored couple. A lot of their foster children were there and their own family. It was such a nice program and the cloggers from Portland were super. I visited Richard and Barbara Felt. Their son in-law Roy Silver was taken to emergency Wednesday evening. April 17. He was very uncomfortable Thursday.

My callers: Joe Vatcher, Richard Felt, Sandy Spencer, Ruby Wing. Suzette Keniston and Kyle, Chris Spencer raked my lawn, Odell Heath. May 4, Saturday there will be a dance at West Paris Grange Hall with the Richard Felt orchestra. Saturday, May 4 we will have our first supper at North Paris Community Hall, from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. Beans. salads, casseroles, biscuits, rolls homemade pies.

Greenwood City By COLISTA MORGAN

Sunday was a day new born just hatched from the sun: a dawn's new breaking. From the pond quacking in expectancy came the talk of the ducks. There also came blackbirds splatterpainting the sky. A robin called from a branch in my maple tree.

To see the pond again free of ice seemed wonderful. Water fascinates everyone, especially when it's in motion. Perhaps it is because light penetrates it and is reflected by it. After going to church I visited at the farm, had dinner with the family and the best of cooks, my sister-in-law, then later went hiking with the two little girls. They are fast growing up. I thought we would travel the cart road up the first gate, but as always half way up the girls wanted to cross the brook. They like it as well as I do. So we crossed another field to reach a gap in the wall and to find out if we could get across to the next field over. We must walk on rocks in the brook. The sun laughed, the brook echoed, the girls chattered and the trees dreamed of new outfits. We looked for pussywillows and saw many, but too mature to pick. There were moose tracks, no doubt left by the one which recently walked the road by the farm house and on into the woods.

Our crossing was good, so we went all a mistake. the "House Rock," which was just a me they came to see me. I was so short distance. Mary climbed its roof. pleased to see them. Then we turned back. The sun had shone down and the breezes had wafted over all. Now at day's end my muscles had that comfortable feeling of having been used as intended. It was a fatigue of good health and exercise in a enchanting environment. I drifted to sleep with delightful memories.

Jackson-Silver Post #68

Members of the Jackson-Silver Post American Legion met in their Hall on the Gore Road in Locke Mills for their second meeting of the month, Thursday, April 18.

There was a special event that preceded the meeting at 6 p.m. Mr. Ray Burnham of Bryant Pond came to show the Legion and Auxiliary members an hour-long video about the Civilian Conservation Corps that served their country from 1932 to 1942 building roads, bridges, state parks and many other projects to aid in conservation in this country.

Mr. Burnham himself was a member of the Corps. He mentioned how they all worked for $30 per month plus housing, food and clothing. One could wish that this nation might be recaptured again by the spirit of conservation and the willingness to work hard often for long hours to accomplish their purpose which is still bringing enjoyment to thousands of people today. Thanks again Mr. Burnham for sharing this bit of American history with us. Following this members of the Post met for their business meeting. Officers present including the Post Adjudant and Finance Officer brought their reports in a brief business meeting. The adjutant, Brian Strickland, reported that they are still working on the project of compiling a roster of all the life time members and outstanding members to be placed on

The Americanism officer, Roland Lord along with the post commander Edley Strickland reported on two projects soon to be presented to the local schools. One is a brief course on flag etiquette along with a video to be presented to local schools. The other project to promote patriotism is by an essay contest in the seventh and eighth grades on various presidents in American history. This idea orginated with the commander himself. Members voted to send the Home for Little Wanderers in Waterville a donation as they have in past years. The report of this years nominating committee was voted on and the officers for the coming year were elected. They were as follows: post commander, Brian Strickland: first vice, Richard Cross; second vice, Frank York: adjutant, Charles

Mason; finance officer, Delwin Wilson; chaplain, Rodney Hanscom service officer, Warren Smith; Americanism officer, Roland Lord; Sgt. at arms, Raymond Tripp Jr, and post historian, Edley Strickland. The Post and members of the Auxiliary voted to sponsor a benefit supper for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bartlett, members of the Post and Auxiliary, respectively, on Thursday, May 2 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Comrade Bartlett has been without work for several long months due to a physical injury without any financial remuneration. Let's all turn out and do all we can to ease the burden of this fine young couple. Those wishing to donate food may treasurer, Vera Dunham; chaplain, call Mrs. Noreen Russo, Auxiliary Sylvia Dunham; historian, Noreen president of Bryant Pond.

Jackson-Silver Auxiliary A video of the CCC preceded the latest meeting of Jackson-Silver Unit, American Legion Auxiliary on April

The Post had arranged for Raymond Burnham of Bryant Pond to show the film. Ray was, himself, a former member of the Bridgton Company, Civilian Conservation Corp. The CCC was a Federal program which began in 1933 and ran until 1942 and was a way to help young men with gainful employment during the "Great Depression." At the same time, it provided a way to accomplish numerous projects concerned with the environment.

The film dealt with several companies in Maine and their ac-On May 2, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. the complishments. Among them were: Post and Auxiliary will serve a benefit building the Maine section of the Apsupper for the Andy and Kathy palachian Trail; building the Evans Bartlett family. There will be a variety Notch road and the road up Cadillac of hot dishes, salads, rolls and pies. A Mountain; fire protection. A donation to the Auxiliary Emergency Fund was voted at this meeting. This program provides emergency assistance to a Senior member. It provides for short term help in developing job skills and is aimed in large part to assist the suddenly "displaced homemaker."

A brief meeting will be held on May 2 following the benefit supper.

OXFORD POMONA GRANGE Bear Mountain Grange, South Waterford, was host to Oxford Pomona Grange for the April meeting, serving supper to 50.

This was a two-point meeting with Cumberland, Oxford Union Pomona providing the officers and the program. PUBLIC NOTICE The Bethel Water District will soon be filing a proposed rate increase with the Public Utilities Commission. It has been ten years since the District last filed for a rate increase. Compliance with the Federal Safe Drinking Water Act is the principal factor causing a rate increase at this time. Increases in the cost of supplies and services further contribute to the need for an increase in rates. This increase will produce the following changes in rates: All customers except Public Fire 44.41% increase; Protection:

Public Fire Protection: 98.48% increase Overall, $60,637 increased revenues: 57.26% increase The district proposes that these changes become effective June 30th. If approved, they will be reflected in the bills produced for the July 1st billing. Public Utilities Commission regulations require that a public hearing be held to give our customers a chance to fairly and openly discuss this increase, and make their opinions known. This hearing is scheduled for 7 p.m. May 14, at the Bethel Town Office meeting room. The District Trustees will be present to answer any questions you may have. A summary of the comments received will be prepared and sent to the Public Utilities Commission after the hearing. Information on obtaining a full review of the proposed rates by the Public Utilities Commission will be provided at the hearing. If needed, further hearings may be scheduled before the Public Utilities You have the right to request more information about the present and proposed rates. This information is available by contacting the Bethel Water District. Information is also available from the Public Utilities Commission and the Public Advotate's office. The Water District staff and trustees will be happy to answer any questions and provide additional information. We may be reached by writing us at P.O. Box 104, Bethel, Maine or calling 824-2342 and leaving your name and number. Calls will be returned promptly. If required, assistance is available from the Public Advocate's office and the Public Utilities Commission. Avoid Alcohol-Aspirin Combination Beverage alcohol should be avoided when certain perscription and nonprescription medicines are being used. If alcohol is consumed while a person is taking narcotic pain relievers, tranquilizers, antihistamines, antianxiety agents, or sedative-type sleep medicines, the following may occur: headaches, rapid heart beat. confusion, and imparied mental judgement.

According to a recent study reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association, the use of alcohol and aspirin at the same time can lead to unexpected increases in blood alcohol concentrations. Individuals in the study were given identical breakfasts and alcohol in orange juice. Some were given two 500 milligram aspirin tablets. Those who took he aspirin had blood alcohol con centrations that were 26 percent higher than those who did not take Researchers indicate that although the level of blood alcohol increase is not dramatic, the increase is enough to "alter a person's response time and make the person too impaired to drive or operate machinery." Reseachers consider the findings important because food in the stomach usually keeps blood alcohol levels low. Apparently, when aspirin is present, blood levels are enhanced.
